I wonder what things are in your life that you are grateful to God for.

In the space inside the barn, draw or write them down.

Thank you, God, for you have given me...